The Harrison Street Church Cuse Depositions in the famous Harri used as the basis for making up the roll of membership. From this roll it will be seen which faction is in the majority. When it is completed the church meeting will be held and the questions so long dividing the factions will be settled, the majority to rule. In the meantime the congregation is divided and worshiping in separate places.

Judge Graves, in his opinion says:

The respondent was a part and parcel of this gigantic and nefarious scheme. For some years it has been the mere sales agent of the Interna tional Harvester Company, the New Jersey company. It was licensed in this State to sell its own goods, but it is now selling the goods of another, "As such party to an uniawful arrangement or combination, it should suffer the penalties prescribed by our laws. I have indicated that we could temper justice with mercy. We have the right to absolutely oust it from the State, and in addition to fine it.
I think a conditional ouster should be made, and the respondent fined in the sum of $50,000 for its long continued infraction of our laws."

Perkins was the guiding spirit in the organization of the International Harvester Company.

Under Common Law.

The ouster suit against the company was brought under the common law and the Missouri antitrust law. The International Company was organized in 1962. It absorbed successively the McCormick, Deering, Bushnell & Glessneh, Milwaukee Koystone, Minnie, Piano, Altman & Miller, Buck-

Minnie, Piano, Altman & Miller, Buckeye Company, and the D. M. Osborne Company.

The international Company, Brace declared in his report, by reason of its enormous capital of $120,000,000, could not obtain a license in Missouri, so the International Harvester Company of America, a selling agency, was organized and obtained a license.
This concern, Judge Brace said, was organized simply to evade the laws of the State.

The commissioner found that the international Company had practically a monopoly on the sale of binders in Missouri.
